

Will You Help Me Reach More Men With The Gospel?

Jamie Holden

Dear Friends,

I have to be completely honest with you...I cannot believe it is June already! This Mantour Season went by so fast!! It was by far our best Mantour Season so far. We had 9 men accept Christ as their Savior and over 1,000 men come to the altar, answering the challenge given to them by our Main Session Speaker. God showed up at this year's Mantour Conferences!

Allow me to share with you about our ministry since last month's newsletter. On April 29, we held our first Mantour in the Philadelphia area. For years, people told me Mantour's wouldn't work in the Philly area, but this year the Holy Spirit told me to do it. We were blown away by the response. The Mantour where "men will never come out to" turned out to be the biggest Mantour we had this year. Thank you to Philadelphia Christian Center for taking a chance on us and hosting our first Philly Mantour!

Immediately after the Greater Philadelphia Mantour, we headed to Monroeville PA for the Penndel MinistrieSummit. It was great getting together with our fellow Pastors! I did have one small problem at MinistriSummit though...I fell and broke a toe! Sounds silly, it was just a toe, but man, did it hurt! But we didn't let it ruin the event for us as we also launched our newest resource, "Under Construction" at this event to go along with our 2018 Mantour theme.

We are excited about this new resource. Under Construction is a compilation book written by over 30 Men's Leaders and Pastors. We were blessed to have men from 6 states and 4 districts of the Assemblies of God, including 4 former or current District Men's Ministry Directors, contribute chapters to this book. I am very proud of how this project turned out and I know it will bless the men who pick up a copy.

Immediately after the Penndel MinistrieSummit, we repacked our car for our final Mantour in the State College area. This Mantour had to be rescheduled due to ice earlier in March, and we re-scheduled it, we didn't realize the new date was also the date of Penn State's Graduation! Because there were no hotels in 100 miles of the college, we ended up driving up Thursday to set up and again on Saturday morning bright and early (actually as early as it was it wasn't bright, the sun had not risen yet!)

Anyway, we had a great wrap up to the Mantour Season at the Northcentral Mantour. The men were challenged by Tony Cruz's Main Session message. I enjoyed leading my workshop, broken toe and all! It was kinda neat to minister at this Mantour with two other speakers and a host Pastor who I went to college with at UVF. It was cool ministering with guys I have known for over 20 years!

I have to say I personally was blessed by this year's Mantour Conference, and I know was not alone. I am already working on next years Conferences and am happy to announce we have all 11 locations scheduled. Check out the schedule on page two and make sure to save the date.

Now I am transitioning to Men's Sundays, men's breakfast, and writing a new book as I also plan next years event. I am also going to be working hard on raising my AGUS Missions Budget. It is going to be a great summer! I want to thank you again for your continued prayer and financial support. We are really seeing God grow and expand the ministry and men are being touched mightily by the Spirit. This is only possible because of your support!
